

Brexit consequences for the labeling of building products in accordance with article 2 no. 1 of the European Building Product Regulation (EU-CPR); status 30.08.2021

Here: extension of the transition period until January 1st, 2023

With the resolution passed on August 24th 2021 the British government has given companies an additional year to change the labeling of construction products to be placed on the UK market. The deadline for the changeover to the UKCA marking is now January 1st, 2023.